B2B SALES REP IN THE AI ERA

No license, no degree gate — the scoreboard is the only credential this job respects.

★ TL;DR — ~$110K median for people who can carry a quota, with a ramp of 1–6 months of product and pipeline basics. The catch: the scoreboard is public, monthly, and merciless. ★

THE CAREER GLITCH TAKE

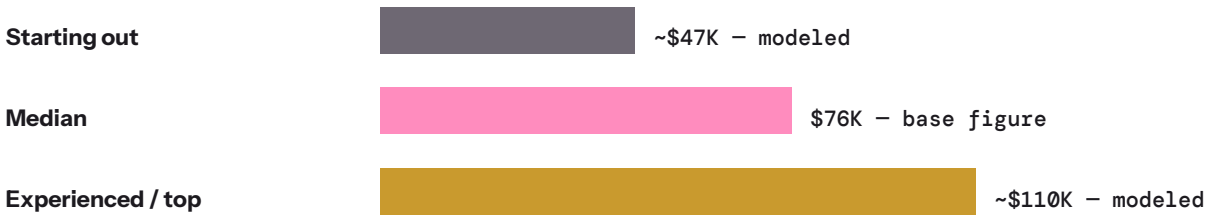

OUR TAKE: YES — WITH EYES OPEN

MEDIAN ~$76K · TRAINING 1-6 months · AI RISK LOW

- Businesses always need revenue, so they always hire people who bring it.
- Top reps earn like executives because they're tied directly to money in.
- AI barely dents it: companies buy from people who understand their business.

The site's take, built from this profession's numbers in the Career Glitch base.

THE MONEY — LOOK AT THE BARS

The Career Glitch base figure for B2B Sales Rep is a ~$76K median (compiled from U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, Occupational Outlook Handbook ranges). The starting and top bars are modeled around that median — orientation, not a promise. Pay swings hard by state, employer and experience: check live postings in your state before planning around any number.

WHAT DOES A B2B SALES REP ACTUALLY DO?

- ✓ Prospect: research accounts, cold outreach, and follow-ups
- ✓ Run discovery calls and demos tailored to each business
- ✓ Negotiate terms and close contracts

✓ Manage a pipeline and forecast your numbers honestly

Think: a professional athlete whose sport is other people's problems — paid on goals scored, benched when the goals stop.

WHAT AI ALREADY TOOK (AND WHAT IT CAN'T)

THE ROBOT	THE HUMAN
AI drafts outreach, enriches lead lists, and transcribes calls. It fills the top of the funnel with more noise than signal.	Reading a room, finding the real decision-maker, and knowing which problem is worth money — that's the job, and it resists automation.

⚠ Miss quota a few quarters in a row and you're out, whatever your excuses. The pay is high because the leash is short.

THE VIBE — IS THIS YOUR LIFE?

THE JOB IS	THE JOB IS NOT
✓ Earnings tied to skill, not tenure ✓ Fast ramp — results in months, not years ✓ Skills transfer to any industry, and into your own business later	✗ Monthly scoreboard anxiety is the lifestyle ✗ Rejection volume is enormous at the start ✗ Income swings with territory and product, not just effort

Good fit? You're competitive, thick-skinned, and you'd rather be paid on results than hours.
Bad fit? You take rejection personally, or you need work that stays done once finished.

THE FORK — PICK ONE DOOR

DOOR A — SDR / BDR ENTRY	DOOR B — FULL-CYCLE AT A SMALLER COMPANY
Start as a sales development rep booking meetings for closers. It's the apprenticeship: volume outreach, objection handling, and a promotion path to account executive.	Join a small company or agency where you prospect and close yourself. Less structure, faster learning, and your numbers are yours from day one.

Smart move: Pick the product before the company: sell something with real demand and a short sales cycle while learning — long enterprise cycles teach slowly.
Where you land after: Account executive, then enterprise sales, sales leadership, or founder.
