CAREER GLITCH · SHORT · SIMPLE · NO BORING PARTS

LASH / BROW ARTIST IN THE AI ERA

Faces got more photographed, not less. The frame around the eyes became a profession.

★ TL;DR — The deal: lash extensions, lifts, brow shaping and lamination for around ~$45K median, with 1–6 months of training. The catch: it's micro-work at premium prices — reputation travels at photo speed, in both directions. ★

THE CAREER GLITCH TAKE

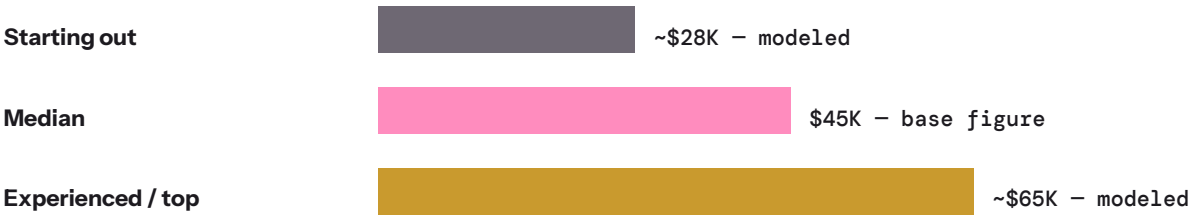

OUR TAKE: YES — WITH EYES OPEN

MEDIAN ~$45K · TRAINING 1-6 months · AI RISK LOW · CERTIFICATE

- Tiny canvases, premium tickets: clients pay for precision near their eyes.
- AI does the marketing; tweezers do the work.
- A home studio or rented room makes this one of beauty's leanest businesses.

The site's take, built from this profession's numbers in the Career Glitch base.

THE MONEY — LOOK AT THE BARS

The Career Glitch base figure for Lash / Brow Artist is a ~$45K median (compiled from U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, Occupational Outlook Handbook ranges). The starting and top bars are modeled around that median — orientation, not a promise. Pay swings hard by state, employer and experience: check live postings in your state before planning around any number.

WHAT DOES A LASH / BROW ARTIST ACTUALLY DO?

- ✓ Apply lash extensions lash by lash; perform lifts and tints
- ✓ Shape, wax, thread and laminate brows to the client's face

✓ Run patch tests and strict hygiene — you work millimeters from eyes

✓ Photograph results, manage bookings and aftercare advice

Think: watchmaking, if the watches blinked.

WHAT AI ALREADY TOOK (AND WHAT IT CAN'T)

THE ROBOT	THE HUMAN
Booking, reminders, content and client records automate. Mapping designs can be previewed digitally with the client.	Isolation of a single natural lash, adhesive control, and judgment about what a real eye can safely hold. Trust is the service.

⚠ One allergic reaction or sloppy isolation becomes a very public review. Training and insurance are not where you save money.

THE VIBE — IS THIS YOUR LIFE?

THE JOB IS	THE JOB IS NOT
✓ Quiet, calm, one-client-at-a-time work ✓ Premium prices for 1–2 hour appointments ✓ Small footprint: a bed, a light, a room	✗ Eyes and back strain from micro-focus ✗ Clients fall asleep, run late, cancel — your day bends ✗ Fills every 2–3 weeks mean your calendar is a treadmill

Good fit? You are calm, meticulous and unbothered by two hours of near-silence and tiny work.
Bad fit? Shaky hands, impatience, or you cut corners where safety lives.

THE FORK — PICK ONE DOOR

DOOR A — LASH STUDIO / SALON	DOOR B — HOME STUDIO / ROOM RENTAL
Start inside an established studio: their clients, their standards, their insurance umbrella while your speed and retention build.	Set up a compliant treatment room of your own and build a book from social proof. Lean costs, full responsibility.

Smart move: Specialize your menu: one signature set (the natural, the wispy, the mega) marketed relentlessly beats a menu of twelve.
Where you land after: A booked-out studio, training other artists, or a multi-room lash and brow bar.

YOUR ROADMAP — 6 STEPS

1	2	3	4	5	6

CHECK YOUR	TRAIN PROPERLY	GET CREDENTIALE	BUILD SPEED	TAKE A	GROW THE

STEP 1 — Check your state's rules first

BEFORE YOU PAY ANYONE

- Many states require an esthetics or cosmetology credential behind lash work — confirm yours
- Plan the credential path before buying a kit

STEP 2 — Train properly

COURSE · 1-6 MONTHS

- Complete accredited training: extensions, lifts, brows, sanitation, eye safety
- Practice isolation on models until it's boring — then it's ready

STEP 3 — Get credentialed and insured

REQUIRED SETUP

- Pass the credential your state requires for this work
- Carry liability insurance from your first paying client

STEP 4 — Build speed on models

WEEKS OF PRACTICE

- Offer model sets at training prices; time yourself honestly
- Photograph healed results, not just day-one glamour

STEP 5 — Take a room or a chair

FIRST REAL BOOKINGS

- Start in a studio or a compliant room of your own
- Set fill policies and deposits — your calendar is your income

STEP 6 — Grow the premium side

YEAR ONE

- Add brow services to raise each visit's value
- Raise prices as retention and waitlists grow

FIRST 90 DAYS — JUST DO THIS

- Today: look up your state's exact credential rules for lash services — write them down.
- Days 1–30: credential path started; training course booked or underway.
- Days 31–60: model sets in progress, timed and photographed; hygiene routine automatic.
- Days 61–90: first paying clients at intro prices; booking and deposit system live.
- Day 90: a small, legal, insured practice exists — speed and retention are the homework now.
